Second Century of Leadership

It's a new age of business, and a new way at NIBCO. Under the strong leadership of Rex Martin, our company has integrated manufacturing, distribution, and networked communications to provide a seamless source of information and service, 24 hours-a-day, 7 days-a-week.

With Rex Martin's vision for NIBCO to be one of customer-driven technology, NIBCO embraced leading edge technology including SAP, web presence, and e-commerce to provide customers with the Perfect Order. NIBCO is poised for a second century of ongoing growth driven by product and process innovations to satisfy the customer's ever-changing needs.

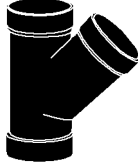

Though times have changed, one thing has remained certain, NIBCO's Core Values: Safety, Integrity, Teamwork, and Continuous Improvement. These fundamental principles have guided the company's decision-making before the term "Core Values" was coined. Today they continue to drive the company toward its goals. They are the keys to NIBCO's continued success.

The heritage of NIBCO has led us to be a true industry leader. To lead is a goal that is written into our company vision. It points our associates toward the same destination. To strive to be above all other manufacturers, to be in front of the many industry issues, and to think beyond today's needs.
